

HUNTING FOR THE HIGGS

Dr. Tao Liu
UC Santa Barbara
Tuesday, January 17, 2012
4:00 P.M. NSH 415

Great progress has been achieved for Higgs searches at both the Tevatron and the LHC. I will provide an overview on the Higgs hunting at colliders from a theoretical perspective, in particular, focusing on recent studies of both standard and non-standard Higgs physics.

Particle
Physics
Seminar

All interested persons are cordially invited to attend.